

Global Arts Kingston presents

Global Feast

Life Tales and Culinary Delights

Enter our delicious audio booth to hear about some life tales and culinary delights! Find out why food is such an important part of the heritage and cultural identity of Kingston's ethnic minority communities by listening to these fascinating interviews.

Free audio booth open Sunday 22 - Sunday 29 June 2014
Culture Café, Rose Theatre Kingston, 24-26 High Street, Kingston-upon-Thames KT1 1HL www.rosetheatrekingston.org is proud to be funded by

Delivered in partnership with

Funded by Heritage
Lottery
Fund

Supported by The National Lottery® through the Heritage Lottery Fund

Proud to be part of Kingston Connections Festival of Stories

Global Arts Kingston presents

Global Feast

The Feast Comes to Life!

Join us at a free community networking event

The culmination of our Global Feast project will celebrate and share the culinary stories and gastronomic delights of Kingston's ethnic minority communities. Immerse yourself in the feast by trying the food cooked by the communities themselves and enjoy some music and dance performances inspired by their culture and heritage.

Thursday 26 June 6.30 - 8.30pm

Richard Mayo Centre, Eden Street, Kingston KT1 1HZ

This is a free event, but you must collect a ticket in advance to attend from Rose Theatre, 24-26 High Street KT1 1HL
No booking fee charged if attending the Box Office in person.

www.rosetheatrekingston.org www.globalartskingston.org.uk